

2010 Fred H. Harris Professional of the Year Award

The Tennessee Economic Development Council presents the 2010 Professional of the Year award annually. It is given in recognition of the achievements of an outstanding economic developer within the state of Tennessee.

Awards Guidelines/Nomination Process

The Professional of the Year Award will be granted to a member of TEDC for leadership in the field of economic development by demonstrating a significant and measurable contribution to economic development in their community.

Eligibility: Any member in good standing of the Tennessee Economic Development Council.

Nomination Process: Members of TEDC or any interested person or organization may submit nominations. The application should include the entry form and related information. The judges may request additional information from the nominating party as required.

Competitive Criteria: All nominations will be considered on a statewide basis. Only a single Professional of the Year Award will be selected for a specific year.

Awards Ceremony: The Professional of the Year Award Winner will be recognized at the awards ceremony held at the TEDC Annual Fall Conference October 8th in Kingsport, TN.
